A fairer day for outdoor sports could not have been chosen had the boys been given the selection. Cool breezes swept constantly over the grounds, tempering the warm rays of the sun and putting everyone on their mettle for the coming frays. The track was also in excellent condition, hard and firm from the recent rains and warm firm from the recent rains and warm weather.

Notwithstanding that the events were postponed from last Friday, the day announced for weeks, and only changed at the last minute, there was an unusually large crowd present. THE SCOTT FAMILY.

A Terrible Condition of Destitution and Worthlessness Shown.

The Scott family, whose miserable condition of destitution some weeks ago was the subject of much talk, again come to the front, and are disposed of for a time. The family was put in a comfortable house in South Wheeling, but shortly moved to the North End, and for awhile the husband worked, but he has been doing nothing for some he has been doing nothing for some time, and had to be helped by the county authorities. The Scott place got a bad name, and last evening the family was brought before Squire Arkle. A terrible state of affairs, morally, was shown to exist. Scott was placed under shown to exist. Scott was piaced under $200 bond for appearance at the next term of court, and in default was committed to jail. Mrs. Scott also went to jail, and a girl named Susan Jackson was placed under $100 bond for good behavior, and in default sent to jail. The four children were sent to the poor bases.

As a Suspected Lunatic.

Old Michael Clahan, who lives near the Hempfield tunnel in a wrotched hovel, was arrested by Lleutenant Lu-kins yesterday on a warrant issued by kins yestorday on a warrant issued by Squire Gillespy, on suspicion that Clahan is insane. He was sent to jail for a hearing June 7. Some time ago the old fellow's wife died, it is alleged as a result of abuse by him, and he was locked up, but afterward released. He is either insane or a marvel of victousness, and should not be left at liberty.
